

West Virginia Broadcasters Association

Content Manager

Jobs in Broadcasting ,United States

Job Description

Content Manager

If you are seeking the opportunity to move into upper news management in a newsroom that embraces rock solid journalism, WVVA Television, Inc., in beautiful Bluefield, WV, is looking for you!

Working with the News Director and Internet Director, this person will help supervise desk operations, newscast producers, anchors/reporters/multimedia journalists and photographers in our award winning news department.

WVVA's newsroom pushes content on air, on line and to mobile platforms, constantly reinventing our product.

Qualifications include a knack for managing people, a sense of how best to steer breaking and developing news coverage to multiple platforms, a grasp of ignment desk operations and experience producing newscasts. Bachelor's degree preferred.

We're searching for a person who is sensitive to management concerns, and is creative yet realistic about using social networks and other new media.

WVVA is part of Quincy Media, Inc., a family owned media company operating television stations in 15 markets. We are an award winning news operation committed to strong journalism and community service.

If you think you can excel in this exciting fast paced position we'd like to hear from you. Send your resume/link to: Audrey Sluss, HR Manager, WVVA TV, 3052 Big Laurel Highway, Bluefield, WV 24701 or email asluss@wvva.com.

No phone calls please. Interviewing begins immediately.

WVVA is an equal opportunity employer.

Company Details

Name	Audrey Sluss
Phone	3043240677
Email	asluss@wvva.com
Address	3052 Big Laurel Highway,United States - 24701

More details

Company Name	WVVA Television, Inc.
Education	Graduate
Job Type	Full Time
Job Status	Interviewing
Job Shift	As Scheduled
Required Travel	As Assigned

Link To Apply