

EEO Job Opportunities Script

Have you ever thought about a career in broadcasting? The excitement of working in a Radio or Television station in West Virginia, or anywhere in the US for that matter!

Everyday Radio and Television stations in this state and across the nation are looking to employ highly motivated people.

To find out about broadcast job openings in West Virginia or around the country, just go to the West Virginia Broadcasters Association website at www.wvba.com and click on job opportunities.

To review job listings nationwide, click www.careerpage.org, then select the state you would like to work in.

All jobs posted are equal employment opportunities.

Minorities and females are encouraged to apply.

Remember www.wvba.com

This community service is sponsored by the West Virginia Broadcasters Association and this station.